Do You Know Your Mom's Story? Glenna Mageau 2018-05-01 "...it reaches far beyond dates of birth, marriage and death and into the heart and soul of a woman and her family..." Multi-Award-Winning Author P.M. Terrell What do you really know about your Mom? Do you know what her hopes, dreams and desires were? Did she live them? Your mom is so much more than the woman who raised you. She grew up in a time very different from yours—there were different beliefs, habits, and ways of doing things. Your mom has seen a lot in her life, getting to hear her journey will help you to understand her in a whole new light. Now is the time get to know her and to document her life. The only way to find out about your mom's story is to ask... because one day she won't be there anymore. When we reach old age we should know our lives mattered, that we mattered, that we are loved, happy and feel connected. This book offers a way to start conversations between you and your mom—in particular, elderly mothers. It is a guide which provides questions to ask, as well as how and when to ask them. Use this as a way to grow, heal and/or mend the relationship between mom and child; preserve this woman's journey through life and in particular her role as Mom. Her story is her legacy to you. "...insightful questions with thought provoking examples and explanations..." Christine Jackson

Embracing This Special Life Jenn Soehlin 2018-09-18 There is a unique struggle to keep your faith in God's goodness while juggling the appointments, stress, grief, and loneliness that accompany the special needs parenting journey. As the mother of two boys with special needs, Jenn Soehlin knows these struggles well and seeks to encourage other mothers with scriptural truths to: -Provide a biblical view on special needs parenting -Free you from unhealthy expectations, worries, and emotions that God wants you to release -Enable you to embrace the life and blessings that God has for you. Embracing This Special Life will help guide you toward hope, spiritual victory, and renewed purpose in your own special needs parenting journey.

Dear Mom Deborah Berger 2002-01-09 Dear Reader: Every woman has stories to tell about her mother. The mother she has, the mother she wants, the mother she misses, the mother she didn't know. We carry our mothers with us. Sometimes we carry her in our hearts, in our heads-or on our backs. Sometimes we are connected to our mothers with the thick, strong cords of intertwined love and true acceptance; other times the bonds are stretched thin and taut, scratching against our consciousness, rubbing raw the sore spots in our souls. But we are always linked to our mothers: both to the dreams of the mothers we wish for and the realities of the mothers we have. Even if our mother has been gone for years-for decades-the relationship is still very much alive. Mom is still with us: offering advice, encouragement, criticism, appreciation, rejection, solace. What we daughters do with this ongoing commentary-whether we unknowingly incorporate it into our reality, or consciously and carefully review it, deciding what to keep and what to put away-is fundamental to how fully we lead our own lives. In Dear Mom: Women's Letters of Love, Loss, and Longing, you meet women who have stripped away pretenses, societal constraints, and basic fears to uncover and express their most private truths about their relationship with their mothers. You get to peer over the shoulders of the women, share in their laughter, and experience their struggles. You see how other women cast light on this most complicated, rewarding, and sometimes frustrating relationship. You witness women at different stages of their lives reflecting on the legacies their mothers (knowingly or unconsciously, but always powerfully) left them. You hear how other women experience the glories and the scars, the hurt and the healing that make up this most primal of connections. You also get to meet the women behind the letters, since each Dear Mom letter is followed by a profile of the contributor. You learn about the surprises, satisfactions, and challenges they faced in writing down their most private truths. The 25 Dear Mom contributors include women from a variety of backgrounds, careers, religions, and lifestyles. They include (present and former) teachers, business owners, homemakers, real estate agents, artists, secretaries, social workers, journalists, and government officials. Some are accomplished professionals, well-known in their fields and public figures in their communities. They are married, single, divorced, widowed. Many, though not all, are mothers themselves. Many contributors are baby boomers, in their 40s and 50s. Others are in their 60s, 70s, and 80s. (The oldest contributor is over 90; her conversation with her mother continues!)

Letters To My Mother Barb Karg 2007-03-01 This touching collection of more than sixty moving letters celebrates the very special gift of a mother's love. Written by people of all ages and backgrounds in appreciation of the mothers who inspired, loved, and nurtured them, these letters confirm that there's nothing like the special bond between mother and child.

Boy Mom Monica Swanson 2019-08-06 This guidebook, packed with wisdom, practical advice, resources, and encouragement, explores how moms can equip their sons with what they most need to succeed in life. Monica Swanson knew she'd tapped a heartfelt concern when nearly two million readers shared her blog post "What a Teenage Boy Needs Most from His Mom." In this helpful book, she takes mothers deeper into the insights they need for the boy-raising journey, covering topics from dealing with the daily influences of friends and technology to helping a boy grow to be physically, spiritually, and emotionally healthy. She also addresses learning and finding passions, perspectives on relationships and dating, and work ethics and money management. Each chapter features relatable stories, handy checklists, and practical advice based on a combination of research, experience, and biblical truth to guide and equip a mom in helping her son achieve his God-given potential. Praise for Boy Mom "In Boy Mom Monica Swanson offers readers practical advice and resounding hope that parenting our sons well through all seasons is not only possible but also enjoyable. This book is like an essential trail guide that I'll refer to again and again in the beautiful and challenging adventure of motherhood."—Becky Keife, author of No Better Mom for the Job and mom of three spirited boys "Monica Swanson is the friend we all need in our lives: humble, straightforward, warm, full of wisdom, and short on nonsense—and she knows her stuff like no one else. In Boy Mom she holds the bar high yet is forthcoming about her own struggles and imperfections. Inside these pages you'll find deeply rooted biblical and practical advice along with calls to action when you don't know where to start. The Boy Mom Manifesto at the end will not only inspire you but also make your heart swell."—Kate Merrick, author of Here, Now: Unearthing Peace and Presence in an Overconnected World "Monica Swanson is the ultimate Boy Mom mentor. While her perspective on parenting is grounded in biblical wisdom, each chapter holds excellent practical tools for how to work out that wisdom on a daily basis in our homes. Of course, we know there aren't formulas that will ensure we get it all right, but we also know that gleaning wisdom from women who have gone before us (and are still in the trenches with us) is invaluable in the wonderful adventure of helping boys become all God created them to be."—Jeannie Cunnion, author of Mom Set Free

To My Very Special Mother Pam Brown 2007 How can anyone ever say enough to thank a mother for everything she does for her children? Here, in one little keepsake, are some of the things that need to be said: Thank you - for everything, for putting up with us, for bringing us up. You're appreciated. You're admired. And we think the world of you. For everything you mean to us...

Mother Paul C. Brownlow 1994-03 In a larger format than the Little Ribbons of Love, this series of Ribbons of Love is also beautifully embossed and decorated with hand-tied satin ribbons. Inside there's more space for a combination of sensitive artistic design, rapturous colors, and inspirational text. They make very special gifts. And now two new editions are perhaps even more beautiful than before -- A Celebration of Sisters and Mother: Another Word for Love.

Mothers & Daughters, that Special Bond Suzanne Beilenson 1998 A must-have bestseller. Daughters and mothers share that special bond!

Mother and Daughter Reflections Pat Ross 2000-03 In the same heartfelt way that author Pat Ross drew from a century's worth of photographs and sentiments to interpret women's friendship in The Kinship of Women and romantic love in The Circle of Enduring Love, she now explores the bonds of yet another tender relationship in Mother and Daughter Reflections. The many facets of this richly embroidered theme unfold before the reader's eyes in sixty-five revealing black-and-white images. These photographs are both vintage and contemporary and include posed portraits as well as spontaneous snapshots. The ages and stages of mothers and daughters are easily recognizable and familiar. A timeless image captures a touching moment after a daughter's birth; another shows a hair-combing session where both the hair and the relationship obviously have grown somewhat more tangled; yet another shows undeniable support and affection in seasoned smiles. As readers pour over these rich images, they will surely identify with the many moments and feelings shared between mothers and daughters of all ages, both yesterday and today. Pat Ross pairs engaging photographs with sensitive, and often witty, passages from the writings of a varied group of expressive women—from little-known historical pieces to selections by writers such as Anne Morrow Lindbergh, Kaye Gibbons, Louise Bernikow, and Nancy Friday. This extraordinary collection will nurture as it celebrates the powerful ties between mothers and their daughters. These ties can be as varied as mothers and daughters themselves—quiet, dynamic, highly charged, playful, affectionate, sustaining, constant, offering unconditional love and searching for it still. There is something in Mother and Daughter Reflections for every woman—generations of mothers and daughters, sisters, and other loving women in one's life.

1,003 Great Things About Moms Lisa Birnbach 2002-03 What makes a Mom? It's the little things . . . o When you're sick in bed, she'll let you watch horrible soap operas and infomercials. o She's not offended when you pour ketchup all over the dinner she makes for you. o At the peak of your ugly phase, she still thinks you're cute. She can load that dishwasher fuller than anyone else on the planet. In delightfully droll bullet points and wacky boxed lists, this tribute to mothers everywhere provides a thousand-make that a thousand and three-reasons to acknowledge and appreciate that all-important female parent in our lives. How did these three talented authors find so many truisms about motherhood? Everyone who has a mother will understand completely once they get their hands on 1,003 Great Things About Moms. It's a sweet and sassy look at what makes moms so special.

A Special Delivery Joyce Slayton Mitchell 1999 Meet the Mitchells: Joyce, a New Englander with time-honored ideas about family, work, and childbearing. And Elizabeth, a young woman who makes unconventional choices about where to live, ways to support herself, and how to give birth. A mother and daughter, half a world apart, who stay connected by writing letters -- intimate, honest, loving letters. Through their letters, you will enter the worlds of two fascinating women. Visit Elizabeth's home in an idyllic corner of New Zealand. Join Joyce's whirlwind life in New York City and Vermont. Share their joy, their excitement -- and their anxious moments -- as they await the birth of Elizabeth's first child, Joyce's first grandchild. From Elizabeth's announcement, I have a new love, to the tense hours leading up to her baby's birth, these letters will captivate you.

Letter to My Daughter: Words of wisdom, advice and lessons on life from parents Theresa Tan 2020-10-15 They say little girls are made of sugar and spice and everything nice. That innocent baby in the cot will one day become a sister, a mother, a wife, a daughter-in-law. A girl's first—and sometimes final—teacher is her mother. From first steps to first kiss, marriage to motherhood, mothers are the coach and counsellor in every girl's life. In this collection curated by veteran editor and writer Theresa Tan, mothers write letters to their daughters who may one day become mothers themselves. At times hilarious, mostly brutally honest, these are no-holds-barred, one-sided conversations between moms and their girls: values to impart, mistakes to learn from, wisdom to pass on, confessions to make, gratitude to express. These letters will make you laugh, weep and hug your child. Includes notes on lipstick and taking care of your body; how to survive marriage (and divorce); stupid things never to do; making hard decisions; living life with passion; raising children and caring for aging parents; carrying on family traditions; focusing on what truly matters in life. Contributors include: Adlena Oh-Wong, Amy Poon, Ng Choong San, Cynthia Chew, Dawn Lee, Dawn Sim, Janet Goh, Jennifer Heng, Jenny Wee, Kalthum Ahmad, Karen Tan, Landy Chua-Moosa, Loretta Urquhart, Paige Parker, Petrina Kow, Sangeeta Mulchand, Shaan Moledina-Lim, Chiong Xiao Ting, Lin Xiuzhen, Yen Chua and Zalina Gazali

Hugs and Thanks and Lots of Love-- for You, Mom Diane Mastromarino 2006 This is a very special book to let a very special mom know how much she is thought of and loved. From chef to seamstress to doctor to comic to storyteller to spirit-lifter and everything in between, she is the superwoman in our lives. Because we don't always find the time in our busy schedules to let her know she means the world to us, this lighthearted, sensible, and sensitive collection is filled with lots and lots of great big hugs, warm wishes, the utmost thanks, the happiest smiles, a sprinkle of sunshine, the jolliest laughter, the sweetest thoughts, and all the love a heart can possibly hold. It is the perfect way to say "thank you" for all the years of Mom's hard work and unconditional love. There are so many words I could try to say to you, Mom, to let you know how much you mean to me, but really the two most important things I want you to know are? "Thank you" for all your love, and "I love you" with all my heart. - Deanna Beisser

To a Very Special Mother Parragon, Incorporated 2003-06

Mothers Are Always Special Celestine Sibley 1985 Mothers are always special. AND IN HER BOOK by that name, Celestine Sibley tells us why. But don't expect to find only silver-haired saints and paragons of maternal virtue in this volume. The women (and sometimes men) Celestine writes about are honest people confronting everyday problems. They are frequently strong-willed, occasionally unorthodox, and generally free-spirited people who do the best they can with what's at hand. And they always do it with a tremendous sustaining power of love. In Mothers Are Always Special, you'll meet people like Sarah McClendon Murphy, who opens her arms, her home, and her heart to hundreds of orphaned and abandoned children. You'll meet courageous Montell Purcell, who--when told her five-year-old daughter must lose her sight or her life-- waits out the doctors and their diagnoses until a miracle occurs. You'll be introduced to Joe and Horace, an unlikely pair who correct, cajole, protect, and mother a brood of five boys after their parents' deaths, and who do so as lovingly as any woman could. And you'll never forget doelike Cora Purefoy, the sixteen-year-old mountain woman who mistakenly sells her baby and then fights to get him back. With such stories, Celestine Sibley reminds us that no matter what the age, sex, or background of the person who loves a child, Mothers Are Always Special.

Mothers & Daughters Madeleine L'Engle 2001 The award-winning author of A Wrinkle in Time and her photographer daughter, Maria Rooney, have joined to create a loving tribute and celebration of the most unique relationship: mothers and daughters. Wonderful black and white photography of mothers and daughters from all races, and the words by L'Engle, make this a very special gift to both give and receive.

A Mother is Love Blue Mountain Arts 2002 This exclusive Blue Mountain Arts series brilliantly showcases an unprecedented, creative design. Alive with combinations of vivid, harmonizing colors, it reflects all the feelings and shades of life. The hand-dyed and handcrafted paper used to create these hardcover books makes each title in this series a dynamic standout. The touching, powerful words found inside express all the thoughts that customers love to share with special people for every occasion.

21 Solid Reasons Why Mum Is So Special Me You - Mum 2018-04-20 This book is guaranteed to honor mum and bless mum's heart in a very special way. Easy to read, not tedious nor time consuming. Fourteen solid endearing reasons have been provided, common to all mums yet specific enough to make mum feel validated. Seven reasons have been reserved for customization by the child to be thoughtful and intentional. The additional reasons could be from special memories and time spent with mum or thoughts that show appreciation to mum. More than a Mother's Day book, it can also be a book given on mum's birthday or just to honor and show love to mum for other reasons, to bless mum's heart in a deserving, loving way, easily and effortlessly; because loving mum is the least we can do for all mum has done for us. This is better than just a physical gift. It is a heart to heart connection. Ideal for children of all ages; from the young child to the adult child. Make this Mother's Day a unique one to remember.
