Jhon Dewalt 2020-10-22 Making things with paper used to be an activity that kids did with their teachers or at home on rainy days to keep them occupied. But for many adults paper crafting is a serious hobby. Making beautiful things out of paper can be simple or quite complex depending how advanced you are in the hobby of Paper Crafts. You can do endless things with different types of paper. From, scrap booking, to making cards, flowers, origami, paper cutting, and all kinds of decorations. As you can see there are many things one can do creatively with paper.

When it comes to paper crafting there is a multitude of projects, techniques and supplies one can use to achieve a work of art made from paper. Paper crafts no longer means just hanging streamers for a party or drawing a sketch on a folded piece of paper for a birthday card. With all the possibilities available in the world of paper crafting today one can take virtually any plain piece of paper and make it into a thing of beauty. Even though most projects do come with instruction and techniques one gets the most satisfaction when they let their own creative touches enter the equation. Many people who think they do not have a creative bone in their body start to paper craft and are surprised with what they add to a basic project. What happens is the more a person crafts like anything else the better they become and then they start to experiment. The person starts to then experiment with the tried and true paper crafts; and as they master them and the results really start to become paper works of art. For those who really feel they have "NO" artistic bones in their bodies there is things like rubber stamping to create paper things with. So the possibilities are there for those who want an easy inexpensive hobby. When you begin paper crafting like anything else start with the easier projects first. After you get used to them you can advance at your own pace. The possibilities are endless and it will open up the creative side of your personality.

The Repurposed Library Lisa Occhipinti 2019-11-26 "How-to instructions on crafting with books . . . will inspire you to think about creative ways to make new treasures out of old things" (The Virginian-Pilot). We all love to read and learn from books, but The Repurposed Library takes our passion even further, presenting us with thirty-three projects to make—quite literally—out of books. For these projects, Lisa Occhipinti rescues and repurposes orphaned and outdated books from flea markets and library sales and turns them into new art objects and practical items for the home. Her creations range from artfully constructed mobiles, wreaths, and vases, to functional items like shelves, storage boxes, and even a Kindle "keeper" for those who want to replicate the sensation of holding a "real" book while reading from an e-reader. Projects utilize every imaginable part of a book—from hardback cover to individual pages—and are a DIY celebration of a new way to view a book's potential. "Occhipinti's 'repurposed' books are truly beautiful art objects, and whether or not you're crafty enough to give them a try yourself, her book is thoroughly enjoyable." —Fine Books and Collections "She shows readers how to transform books into mobiles, lamp shades, even clocks." —National Post
