Dare We Hope That All Men be Saved? Hans Urs Von Balthasar 2014-10-08 This book is perhaps one of the most misunderstood works of Catholic theology of our time. Critics contend that von Balthasar espouses universalism, the idea that all men will certainly be saved. Yet, as von Balthasar insists, damnation is a real possibility for anyone. Indeed, he explores the nature of damnation with sobering clarity. At the same time, he contends that a deep understanding of God's merciful love and human freedom, and a careful reading of the Catholic tradition, point to the possibility—not the certainty—that, in the end, all men will accept the salvation Christ won for all. For this all-embracing salvation, von Balthasar says, we may dare hope, we must pray and with God's help we must work. The Catholic Church's teaching on hell has been generally neglected by theologians, with the notable exception of von Balthasar. He grounds his reflections clearly in Sacred Scripture and Catholic teaching. While the Church asserts that certain individuals are in heaven (the saints), she never declares a specific individual to be in hell. In fact, the Church hopes that in their final moments of life, even the greatest sinners would have repented of their terrible sins, and be saved. Sacred Scripture states, "God ... desires all men to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth. For there is one God, and there is one mediator between God and man, the man Christ Jesus, who gave himself as a ransom for all" (1 Tim 2:4-5).

Purest of All Lilies Donald H. Calloway 2008 Saint Faustina is well known for the revelations of Divine Mercy that she received from Jesus and recorded in her Diary. But few know that she also received many revelations from the Blessed Virgin Mary and enjoyed a special relationship with her. Now, in Purest of All Lilies, a prominent Marian priest with a background in Mariology explores St. Faustina's rich relationship with Mary from her love of Mary growing up in Poland to the many Diary passages that she devoted to the Mother of God when she was a nun. The reader learns how St. Faustina's father would begin each day singing prayers to the Blessed Virgin and of the family's special May and October devotions to the Mother of God. At the early age of five, the future saint would tell her mother of dreams she had in which she walked hand-in-hand with the Blessed Virgin in a beautiful garden. Along with St. Faustina's early devotion to Mary, the author shows us how the Blessed Mother taught her as a nun important lessons about suffering, purity of heart and humility. Perhaps most fascinating of all, this Marian priest analyses the poems that St. Faustina wrote about Mary and the metaphors she used to describe the Blessed Virgin, including flowers such as the lily, the rose and the violet.

The Refugee from Heaven 2014-06-05 The Refugee from Heaven is the greatest story ever known. Cora Evans recounts the life of Jesus Christ as an eyewitness, beginning with the first meeting between Jesus

Experience the awe of the disciples in the Upper Room at the Last Supper, and stand in the holy sepulcher at the moment of the Resurrection. Faustina, Saint for Our Times George W. Kosicki 2010 I rejoice in this book! Here is no mere biography, no simply historical presentation of a life once lived. Through years of studying her Diary and immersing himself in Divine Mercy, Fr. Kosicki came to know St. Faustina---not as some remote visionary, but as a real person acting here and now. This is the person you will find in these pages, fulfilling through Fr. Kosicki, her promise to return to earth to encourage others to trust (see Diary, 1582). Come and meet her and discover why Pope John Paul II called her "a gift of God to our time." May she become for you---as she is for Fr. Kosicki---a sister who will walk with you, intercede for you, and teach you what it means to live in the mercy of God.---Vinny Flynn Author 7 Secrets of the Eucharist Director, MercySong Ministries of Healing This is a book to keep for a long time. You will also want to share copies with friends who are sincerely seeking to grow in the love of God and Christian discipleship. Miss Fannie's Hat Jan Karon 2001-02-19 Ninety-nine year old Miss Fannie has lots of hats, and she loves them all. But her favorite is the pink straw hat with the silk roses. That's the one Miss Fannie has worn on Easter Sunday for the past thirty-five years. When Miss Fannie's preacher asks her to donate one of her precious hats to the church auction, choosing which one to part with is no small task. This heartwarming story about the rewards of unselfish love will enchant readers young and old. The star of Miss Fannie's Hat is based on Jan Karon's own grandmother. "My grandmother, Miss Fannie, was so wonderful I wanted to share her with everyone," says Jan Karon. "I wrote Miss Fannie's Hat to give both children and adults a sense of family, to give them the grandmother or great-grandmother they never had, or always wished they had. Briefly, the story is about sacrifice--and the rewards that can come when we give with a willing heart."

The Crown of Sanctity Daniel O'Connor 2019-03-03 2,000 years ago, the Son of God prayed to His Father, "Thy Will be done on earth as it is in Heaven." This prayer, the greatest ever uttered by the lips of man, will not go unanswered. Jesus has revealed to an Italian mystic named Luisa that the time has now at last arrived for its fulfillment; that is, for the restoration of what was destroyed by Adam 6,000 years ago in the Fall of Man. In brief: the entire world is about to be radically transformed like never before in its history. This is probably something you should know about. This book has been written to inform you about the transformation and to enable you to take part in it and hasten it. But this transformation will not be achieved through human effort. It will be given directly from Heaven by way of God's greatest Gift: the Gift of Living in the Divine Will, which is the Crown of Sanctity, and which even now we must all strive to receive. In this sanctity is found The Culmination of Deification, the Fruitfulness of Mystical Marriage, the Aspiration of the Unification of Wills, and the Essence of Marian Consecration. This is none other than the Triumph of the Immaculate Heart of Mary promised at Fatima. It is the coming of the Kingdom of God. This is a long book, but its length should turn away no one, as a thorough and detailed table of contents is given so that each reader can easily select only those sections in which he is interested for his perusal. And any reader is sure to find much that interests him. Within these pages is a treasury of resources; not only concerning Luisa's revelations directly, but also on new arguments for God's existence and the truth of Christianity, extensive Catechesis on Private Revelation in general and on the spiritual life in general (including overviews of the greatest teachings on spirituality in the history of the Church), and details on the Era of Peace as revealed to Luisa and many other mystics, visionaries, and seers (Fatima, Medjugorje, Venerable Conchita, Fr. Gobbi, and dozens more). You will not regret reading this book. "This is our great hope and our petition: "Your Kingdom come" - a kingdom of peace, justice, and serenity, that will re-establish the original harmony of creation." - Pope St. John Paul II

St. Thérèse of Lisieux, Her Last Conversations Saint Thérèse (de Lisieux) 1977 Those who attended St. Thérèse of Lisieux during her last illness were living in the company of one of God's "greatest" saints, one prepared for our times. Fortunately for us they did not simply listen to her conversations, but wrote down what they remembered. This volume brings together their reports of Thérèse's "final words" during her last months, including some of her most famous sayings, such as "I will spend my heaven doing good on earth." The book includes general and biblical index, with 12 photos.

Miracles of the Gods Erich von Däniken 1975

Six Popes Hilary C. Franco 2021-05-25 Monsignor Hilary C. Franco, advisor to the Permanent Observer Mission of the Holy See to the United Nations, has led a remarkable life in the Catholic faith. This rich memoir chronicles his amazing journey as a self-described "poor country priest" who forged deep and meaningful friendships with many of the most important religious figures in the Catholic Church. He not only worked closely with Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen and counted Mother Teresa as a friend, but also has had the honor of working with six papal leaders: Pope John XXIII, Pope Paul VI, Pope John Paul II, Pope Benedict XVI, and the current Pope Francis. What emerges is a history of modern Catholicism and faith as seen through the eyes of a man who was a personal witness to events that continue to shape the world. Hilary Franco, an Italian-American who grew up in the Bronx in the '30s and '40s, graduated from the Pontifical Roman Seminary with a degree in Biblical Theology--later earning degrees in sociology (Fordham) and Canon Law (Lateran University, Rome)--and ordained a priest at the age of 22. Upon returning from Rome during the reign of Pope Pius XII, he served in several parishes. The ordinary course of Father Franco's life changed dramatically when he asked his spiritual hero, the popular author and television star Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen, if they could meet so he could ask him about his books. To Father Franco's surprise (and the disbelief of his superiors), he got his meeting, and they quickly became friends. Impressed with his inquisitive mind, fluency in Italian and Latin, and Scripture training, Bishop Sheen asked Father Franco to assist him at the National Office of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, which he did for eight years (1959-1967). A few months after Pius's death in 1958, the newly elected Pope, John XXIII, announced his intention to convene an ecumenical council. The two men (with thousands of others) were thrown into the preparatory work for the Second Vatican Council (1962-1965). Father Franco would soon be in daily contact with men like Giovanni Battista Montini, Albino Luciani, Karol Wojtyla, and Joseph Ratzinger--respectively, the future Popes Paul VI, John Paul I, John Paul II and Benedict

XVI--as well as with notable Council periti ("experts") Karl Rahner and Hans K ng. Franco had a front-row seat to history as Paul VI led the Council in the spirit of his predecessor and then steered the Church through the social, political, and theological upheavals of the '60s and '70s. Whether conveying to Paul VI President Johnson's desire that the Pontiff host Vietnam peace talks (and the Pontiff's immediate, favorable response to a grateful president) or surviving the psychic trauma of Red Brigade terrorism, Franco has never been far from the action. Among his most searing memories is that of hearing the collective hush of the crowd below his Vatican office after the attempt on the life of John Paul II. Father Franco's life of service always has him traveling the globe, never confining him to a desk isolated from the common people he was determined from his youth to help. Shortly after the close of the Council, the Vatican called Father Franco to serve in its Diplomatic Corps at the Apostolic Delegation in Washington D.C., and then in the Prefecture of the Economic Affairs of the Holy See in the Vatican. During the decades that he was in charge of the English Desk of the Vatican Congregation (1970-1994), Father Franco was named Monsignor (1971) and then Prelate (1981). To this day, Monsignor Franco continues to serve the Church as Adviser for the Permanent Observer Mission of the Holy See to the United Nations. Having the personal privilege of knowing several people later canonized Saints--including John XXIII, John Paul II, and Mother Teresa of Calcutta--Monsignor Franco humbly but effectively walks the corridors of spiritual power in New York, the United States and Rome.

The Flame of Love Elizabeth Kindelmann 2020-07-07 The devotion of the Flame of Love of the Immaculate Heart of Mary was given to the Church for the specific purpose of blinding Satan so that he loses his influence over our families, our communities-over all people. The movement began with the heart of the poor and humble Hungarian mystic and Third-Order Carmelite, Elizabeth Kindelmann (1913-1985), when she heard the voices of Jesus and Mary through interior locutions between the years 1961 and 1983. The result is this Spiritual Diary, written at the request of Our Lord Jesus, which has received the Imprimatur of the Church and gifted the world untold blessings for our critical times. Jesus said to Kindelmann, "My Mother is Noah's Ark," and Mary told her, "I assure you, my little one, that I have never before given into your hands such a powerful force of grace, the burning flame of the love of my heart. Ever since the Word became Flesh, I have not undertaken a greater movement than the Flame of Love of my heart who rushes to you. Until now, nothing could blind Satan as much. And it is up to you not to reject it, for this rejection would simply spell disaster." The Flame of Love movement is an official Church association of the faithful, enjoying the heartfelt approval of His Eminence Cardinal Péter Erdő, Primate of Hungary, Archbishop of Eszertom-Budapest, and the approval of various bishops in whose dioceses it flourishes, as well as a 2013 apostolic blessing from Pope Francis. God is seeking to build up a holy army of souls in order help us to fight the battle ahead that leads to sure victory for those firm in faith. In this remarkable Spiritual Diary, you follow the life and divine conversations of one of the greatest mystics of the 20th century, learn of the prayers and weekly prayer schedule that effectively blind Satan, and of the divine promises Our Lord wishes to give to us through the intercession of His Mother's Immaculate Heart.

Misericordia Et Misera Pope Pope Francis 2016-12-01 Pope Francis proclaims a new 'Time of Mercy' opening up before humanity, a cultural revolution to displace the all-pervasive indifference of modern society: a new and joyful 'culture of mercy'. Here is a clear and prophetic roadmap for our future, for individuals, communities, societies and the human family itself. New initiatives and points of emphasis are proposed to open up our hearts to the all-loving God and, in turn, to each other - to build our lives on mercy.

The Devotion and Promotion of Stigmatics in Europe, C. 1800-1950 Tine Van Osselaer 2021 "In the nineteenth century a new type of mystic emerged in Catholic Europe. While cases of stigmatisation had been reported since the thirteenth century, this era witnessed the development of the 'stigmatic': young women who attracted widespread interest thanks to the appearance of physical stigmata. To understand the popularity of these stigmatics we need to regard them as the 'saints' and religious 'celebrities' of their time. With their 'miraculous' bodies, they fit contemporary popular ideas (if not necessarily those of the Church) of what sanctity was. As knowledge about them spread via modern media and their fame became marketable, they developed into religious 'celebrities'"--

The Mercy of God Catholic Church. Pope (1978-2005 : John Paul II) 1980-12 Centering on the theme of mercy, John Paul II hopes to underline this strongest attribute of God, especially in the modern age. He continues his discussion of world problems that was first began in Redeemer of Man, teaching that love informed by God's mercy is the only response to these situations. He appeals to the world's population to turn to the mercy of the Father, and to find in God's love a refuge from the impersonal, technologically-driven world we live in.

There are scared Saints, brilliant Saints, weak Saints, adventurous Saints, abused Saints, overjoyed Saints, disabled Saints—and the point of every one of them is the love of God. Whether you're checking the map to find Saints who look like you or perusing the extensive indices to find Saints with your skills or struggles, you'll find countless stories in this book that remind you how very possible holiness is.

The Life and Miracles of St. Benedict Pope Gregory I 1880

The Benedict Option Rod Dreher 2017-03-14 A NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER "Already the most discussed and most important religious book of the decade." —David Brooks In this controversial bestseller, Rod Dreher calls on American Christians to prepare for the coming Dark Age by embracing an ancient Christian way of life. From the inside, American churches have been hollowed out by the departure of young people and by an insipid pseudo-Christianity. From the outside, they are beset by challenges to religious liberty in a rapidly secularizing culture. Keeping Hillary Clinton out of the White House may have bought a brief reprieve from the state's assault, but it will not stop the West's slide into decadence and dissolution. Rod Dreher argues that the way forward is actually the way back—all the way to St. Benedict of Nursia. This sixth-century monk, horrified by the moral chaos following Rome's fall, retreated to the forest and created a new way of life for Christians. He built enduring communities based on principles of order, hospitality, stability, and prayer. His spiritual centers of hope were strongholds of light throughout the Dark Ages, and saved not just Christianity but Western civilization. Today, a new form of barbarism reigns. Many believers are blind to it, and their churches are too weak to resist. Politics offers little help in this spiritual crisis. What is needed is the Benedict Option, a strategy that draws on the authority of Scripture and the wisdom of the ancient church. The goal: to embrace exile from mainstream culture and construct a resilient counterculture. The Benedict Option is both manifesto and rallying cry for Christians who, if they are not to be conquered, must learn how to fight on culture war battlefields like none the West has seen for fifteen hundred years. It's for all mere Christians—Protestant, Catholic, Orthodox—who can read the signs of the times. Neither false optimism nor fatalistic despair will do. Only faith, hope, and love, embodied in a renewed church, can sustain believers in the dark age that has overtaken us. These are the days for building strong arks for the long journey across a sea of night.
